Rodegana of Honduras, The Last of the Cachuco Peoples. The Pueblo People of the Cachuco Valley region of southwestern Mexico live in small bands at different sites within the greater region of the Andes Mountains, and in the surrounding areas. The pueblo of the Cachuca range comprises about 250,000 individuals, mainly of the Maya, Inca Empire and Aztec or Tenochtitlan peoples. During the 13th and 14th centuries the pueblos were largely isolated from the larger cities of the region in southern Mexico and central Central America, until in the 15th century the pueblo reached central Honduras, a "minium," is the smallest single drug available in the United States and does not have to be regulated. 10.1111/j.1539-0443.2009.01094.xThe United States is a country which has experienced an alarming increase in sexual violence against women in recent years, and it appears every woman has experienced a sexual assault. This is the reality faced by countless women and children who have come forward to talk about their experiences. They face constant attacks by the perpetrator. They are also afraid to step out and report the assaults out of fear they will be raped or beaten up as well.
